Hospital Discharge Packages

Hospital Discharge Package.....only $399!

Taking the stress out of going home!

We understand that coming home from the hospital is a much-anticipated moment, but not without its stresses for you and your family. Home Retirement Services has been providing people like you with support and services that help make this transition home as safe and comfortable as possible. There is a lot of preparation and coordination that must occur in order to ensure you travel safely home and that everything you need is waiting for you. There are meds to be arranged, follow-up appointments to be booked and at-home recovery instructions to be managed, not to mention transportation and other important issues. By calling us directly, one of our experienced Client Care Managers can meet with you and your family while you is still in the hospital to discuss a plan and coordinate everything with your hospital Social Worker. We will take time to understand your individual needs and design a plan that will take the stress out of moving home so that you can concentrate on a successful recovery!

Our Hospital Discharge Package includes all of the following services for one low price:

- Care Management Services including In-hospital assessment by an experienced Client Care Manager;
- Attendance at discharge planning meeting;
- Visit to your home prior to discharge to ensure your home is properly prepared;
- Coordination and delivery of Home Medical Equipment and Supplies;
- Arrangement of your transportation home;
- 10 hours of Personal Care Services and/or Home Support Services;
- 24-hour on-call support for questions and urgent matters;
- Immediate response for additional care;
- Communication with other health care professionals.
- Price is subject to change without notice.

Any additional purchases made are not included in the price. They will simply be added to the invoice, no petty cash required. Contact us today to find out how we can help you make a safe and comfortable transition home with our Hospital Discharge Package.
